

KANJI STUDY APP

-

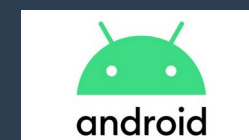

STATE OF ART

By Sergio Páramo

In support of the Japanese language

Powered by:

1 - Introduction

Kanji Study is an app that contains all the Japanese Kanjis and Kanas on a database system created and designed to self-learners and presented in an intuitive user interface to interact, listen, and learn through the process.

1.1 - Target

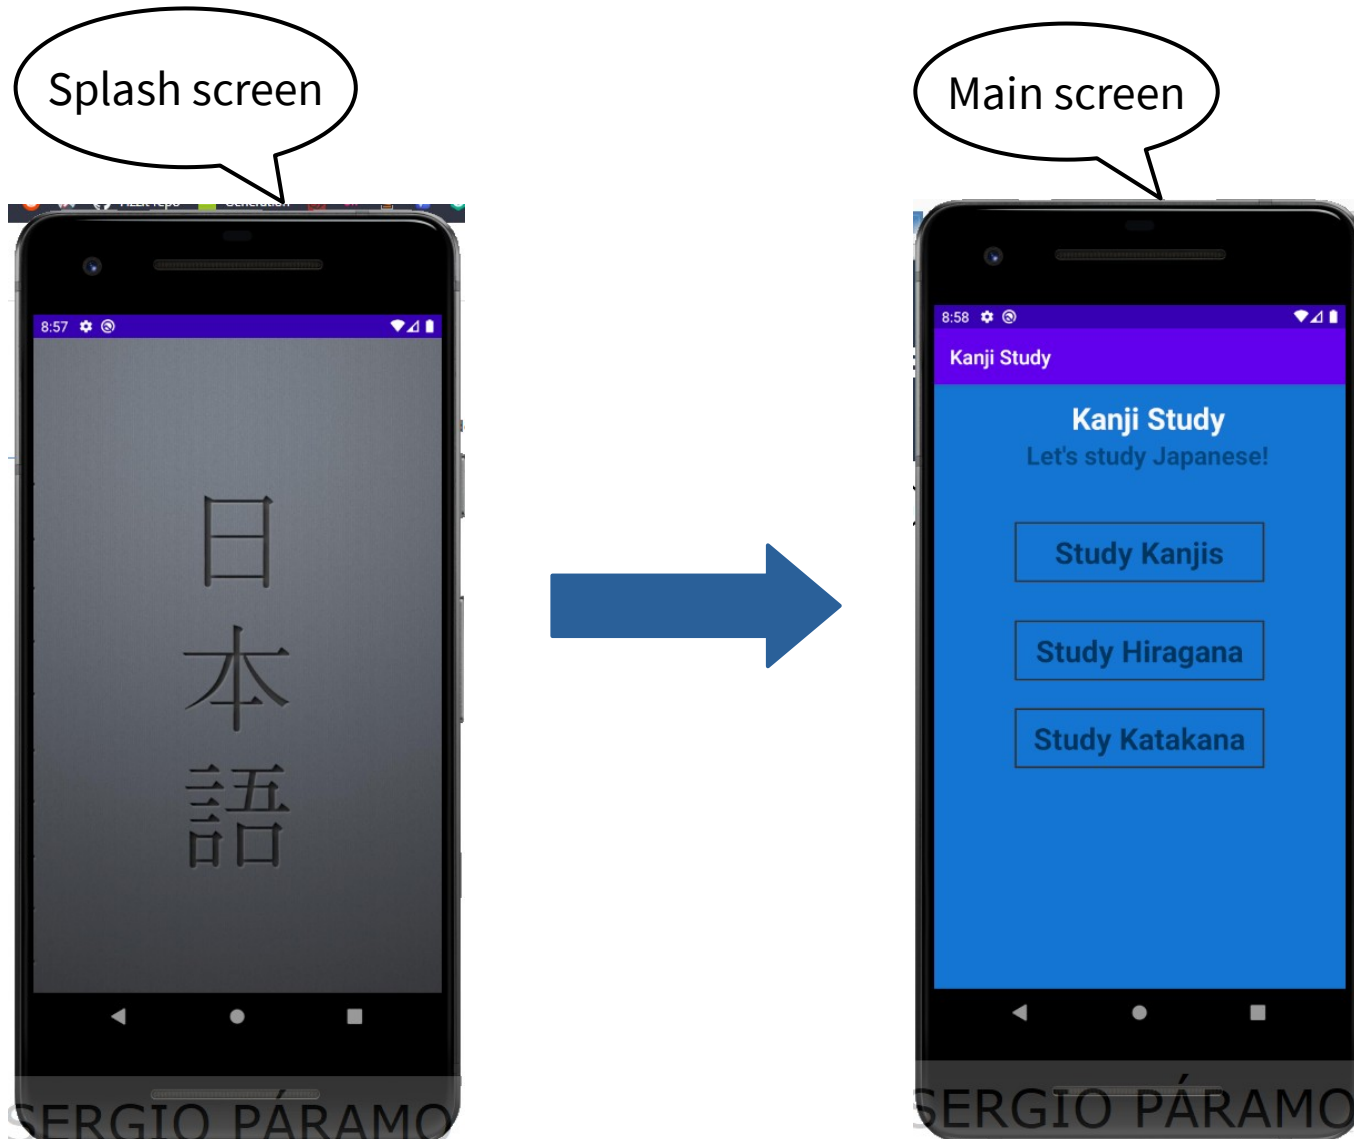

The app is aimed to those interested in Japanese Kanjis and Kanas (hiragana and katakana) and are seeking an easy and convenient way to improve their japanese daily.

1.2 - Solution

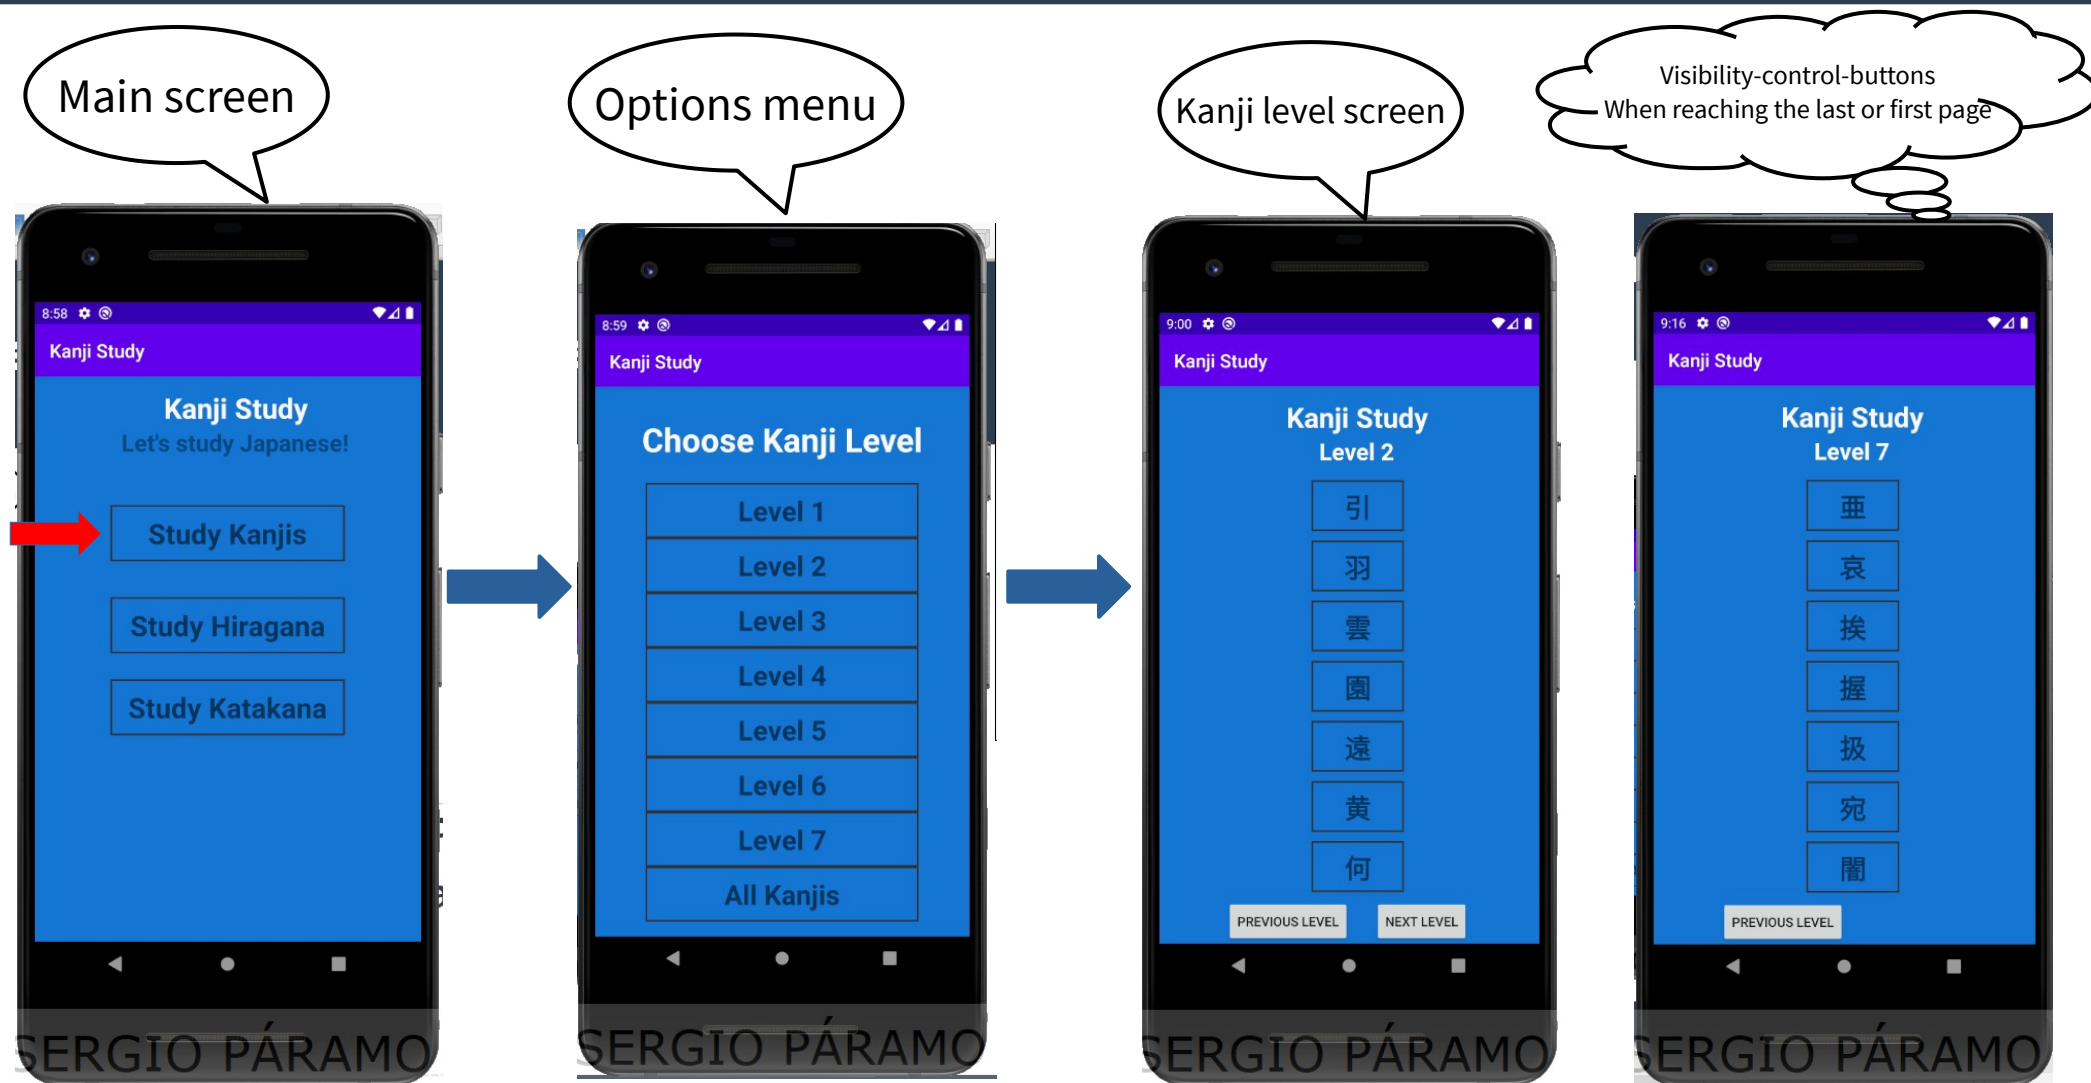

Japanese Database with:

- more than 13.000 Kanjis
- 23 Hiragana
- 23 Katakana

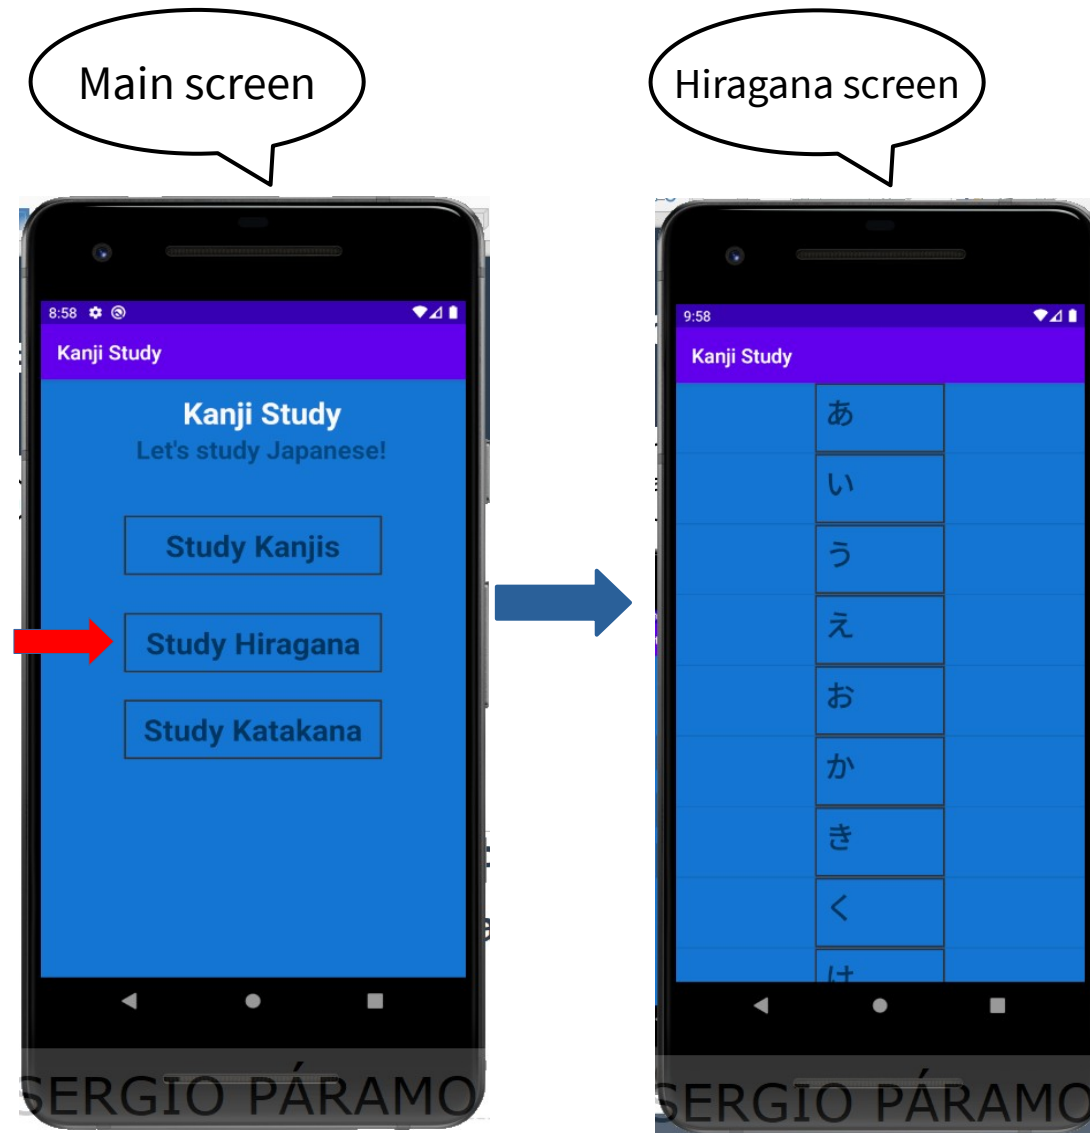

2. - UX Design (Beta release) Main section

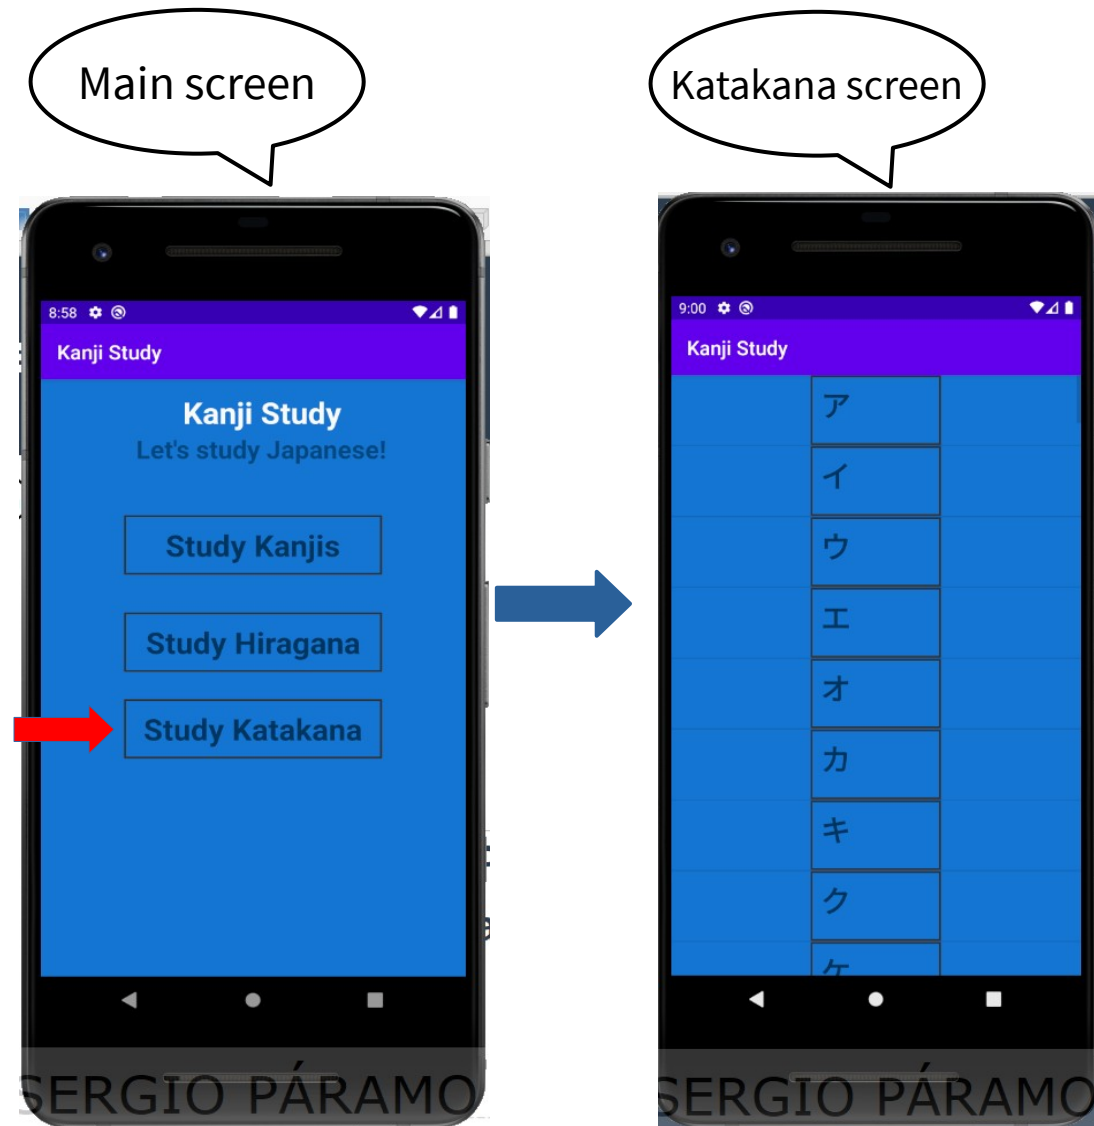

2.1 – Kanji Navigation Graph

2.2 – Hiragana Navigation Graph

2.3 Katakana Navigation Graph

3 - Colours

Background color

#1976D2
(25, 118, 210)

Splash screen color

#D8D8D8
(216, 216, 216)

Font colors:

#333333
(51, 51, 51)

#FAFAFA
(250, 250, 250)

4 – Styles used

ItemsStyle (For Textviews that contains info)

- `Android:textSize = 30sp`
- `Android:textStyle = bold`
- `android:clickable = true`
- `android:focusable = true`
- `Android:background = @drawable/border` (to make the border)

4 – Styles used

TextStyle (For text)

- FontFamily: Verdana
- Android:textSize = 36sp
- Android:textStyle = bold